

I am against the attempt to weaken the "no call" list in wisconsin. I am very grateful that this list has dramatically decreased the number of phone calls received. Not only does it prevent unwanted calls, it significantly reduces the minutes charged to my cell phone.

My suggestion would be to do just the opposite - I would like it strengthened to also stop political activity calls, especially those that are just recorded messages to which you cannot respond.